Kristi House and Royal Caribbean Offer a "Taste of Liberty" Entertainment and Luncheon Event to Help Child Sexual Abuse Victims

Two hundred friends and supporters of Kristi House will enjoy an exclusive day on the deck of Royal Caribbean's Liberty of the Seas while docked at the Port of Miami, Saturday, September 13, 2008.

Guests will be treated to a sampling of great entertainment and scrumptious food, usually experiences limited to cruise passengers only. "A Taste of Liberty" is being completely underwritten by Royal Caribbean International so that 100% of ticket sales will go to help child sexual abuse victims. Tickets are just $100 per person before August 23; and $125 August 24 to September 3. Tickets are available at www.kristihouse.org.

This limited event will begin with a cocktail reception featuring the ship's finest libations and hors d'oeuvres. Then guests will be treated to "Encore: An Ice Spectacular," a fabulous ice skating show customarily the exclusive privilege of cruising guests. And to complete the taste of life at sea with Royal Caribbean, guests will enjoy lunch in the Liberty's gorgeous Rembrandt Dining Room.

Royal Caribbean has also donated a 7-Day Caribbean Cruise for raffle. Chances are being sold for this grand prize and other prizes at just $20 each, or six chances for $100. Raffle tickets are also available online, and winners need not be present to win.

This event is being chaired and organized by Kristi House Board members. Sarah J. Washburn, of Wilson, Washburn & Forster Insurance; Juan Trescastro, of Royal Caribbean International; and Kate Inman of Opko Health are co-chairs. Event hosts include Nelson David Diaz of Becker & Poliakoff, Bobbie Jones-Wilfork of Miami-Dade Aviation Department, Jeanette Nunez of the Public Health Trust and Edie Murphy of Wachovia Trust.
