FRESH FUNDRAISER

Fresh fare greeted the more than 200 friends of the Kristi House to raise funds for child sexual abuse victims at the Fine Wine Tasting Gala at The Fresh Market Coconut Grove store. The Fresh Market underwrote the fantastic fete with yummy wines from Southern Wines and Spirits as treats were offered throughout the store in divine stations each featuring an array of wine choices paired with gourmet hors d'oeuvres. "This event brought many new friends to Kristi House and attention to the difficult but epidemic problem of child sexual abuse," Kristi House executive director Trudy Novicki said. "The Fresh Market offered a unique, lovely and relaxed venue and was exceptionally generous to our guests...no one wanted to leave when the party was over!" State Attorney Katherine Fernandez Rundle and Miami Commissioner Mark Sarnoff along with Kristi House president Fred Bredemeyer, past president Margaret Nee and board members Bonita Whytehead, Chuck Vodicka, Jeanette Nuñez and Lindy Colson turned out for the wonderful affair.
